

Call to Worship, Body and Blood of Christ, Cycle C

Patricia Torre, DW, Pastoral Associate, Sacred Heart Church, Southbury, CT

Today we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. It is a day to remember ~ that Jesus became one with us in our humanity, in our brokenness, in our living and in our dying.

We remember that at the last supper Jesus poured his very self into the simple everyday elements of bread and wine.

We remember that Jesus kept nothing for himself but gave everything away. And he asked that we do this in memory of him.

And so in remembrance of Jesus,

We celebrate the Eucharist together as one family.

We enter into the brokenness of others with his love.

We pour out our love upon others.

We do this in remembrance of Christ every time we offer our lives in humble service of one another.

What is one thing you can do this week ~ in remembrance of Christ?

As we celebrate this gift of the Eucharist this day, let our Amen at Communion be our 'Yes' to Christ who gave his all for us. May we become what we receive, the Body of Christ, the life giving presence of Christ in our world.
