23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time	In faith, with open hearts, we proclaim what we believe. Do you believe in God, who promises to protect us and to comfort us? Do you believe in Jesus, who accepts us as we are? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who moves us to accept ourselves and others as Jesus accepted the deaf man?	Loving God, we believe in your goodness. We know that you will hear the prayers we bring to you today. Open the hands of our nations so that we may reach out with acceptance to others, in Jesus' name we pray. Open the ears of our church so that we may hear the cry of those who are afraid, in Jesus' name we pray. Open our hearts so that we may be strengthened through the power of your Spirit, Jesus' name we pray.	God, we praise you for your healing love. May your word guide us. May the body and blood of Jesus strengthen us. May your Holy Spirit give us the courage to embrace one another with God's healing love. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time	In faith, with open hearts, we proclaim what we believe. Do you believe in God, who has sent us the Son of God to save us? Do you believe in Jesus, the Messiah who died on the cross? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who helps us to carry our cross and fills us with life even after we die?	God of love, we praise you. We lift our hearts to you as we pray: May the nations of our world share each other's burdens, in Jesus' name we pray. May our church be a source of strength for all who follow the way of the cross, in Jesus' name we pray. May we find in the crosses we bear with our neighbors the gift of life everlasting, in Jesus' name we pray.	Loving God, you know when we are happy and when we are hurting. You sent your Son, Jesus, to lead us through suffering into joy. We thank you and praise you. May your Holy Spirit enable us to find in our suffering the way to live in glory with you now and forever. We ask this through Jesus our Lord. Amen.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time	God, we are you people, who walk with you and so we proclaim: Do you believe in God, who made us to be close and to care for each other? Do you believe in Jesus, who embraces us and blesses us with God's love? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who enables us to embrace each other with God's love?	God, you welcome us with open arms and so we come to you with our prayers. For the family of all peoples and nations, may we walk together as God's children, in Jesus' name we pray. For the people in our parish family, may God rule our lives with compassion and mercy, in Jesus' name we pray. For all of us who are God's children, may God walk with us and watch over us, in Jesus' name we pray.	God of all creation, we are your children. You walk with us and guard us. We praise and thank you for your protection. With the bread and cup of Jesus, we celebrate life in your kingdom. May your Holy Spirit fill our homes with the breath of your life. We ask this through Jesus, your Son. Amen.
28th Sunday in Ordinary Time	We love you, God, and so we have the courage to proclaim: Do you believe in God, who is all wise and knows what we need? Do you believe in Jesus, who shows us the way to depend only on God? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who fills us with the wisdom of God?	All that we have comes from you, God. We place our trust in you when we pray. For all leaders, may they seek wisdom rather than riches, in Jesus' name we pray. For our poor and hungry, may they find comfort in God's love, in Jesus' name we pray. For our church, may we be faithful followers of Jesus, in Jesus' name we pray.	God of wisdom, nothing is impossible for you! May the body and blood of Jesus save us. May your Holy Spirit guide us in the ways that are wise. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time	God we stand in praise before you and proclaim: Do you believe in God, who sent Jesus to give his life for us? Do you believe in Jesus, who suffered and died for us? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who fills us with life everlasting?	God, you call us to be servants. We offer to you our prayers for those in need. For the leaders of all nations, may they use their power wisely to serve all people, in Jesus' name we pray. For our church, may we serve others as Jesus did, in Jesus' name we pray. For those who are suffering, may the Holy Spirit strengthen them and give them hope, in Jesus' name we pray.		Lord Jesus, you know what it is to suffer. When we are feeling hurt, you comfort us and give us light to see your way. We thank you and praise you. May your body and blood bring us hope. May your Holy Spirit comfort everyone who is suffering. Through you we give glory to God in our own suffering, now and forever. Amen.
30 th Sunday in Ordinary Time	With open hearts, we proclaim our faith: Do you believe in God, who gathers and comforts the scattered, the crippled and the blind? Do you believe in Jesus, who embraces us as we are and has come to heal us? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who opens our eyes and enables us to see what we would otherwise could not see?	Jesus, as Bartimaeus called out to you, we come before you and pray. For those around the world who are lost and cannot feel your presence, in Jesus' name we pray. For those who are suffering, in Jesus' name we pray. For all those who think you may not love them and are afraid to ask for your healing touch, in Jesus' name we pray.		God, you lead us through darkness into light. May the body and blood of your Son, Jesus, strengthen our trust in you. May your Holy Spirit open our eyes to see your glory. We ask this in Jesus' name, forever and ever. Amen.

Feast of All Saints	We are called to place our trust in one God, and so we say: Do you believe in God, who wants us to love as God loves—without holding back in any way? Do you believe in Jesus, who shows us the way to love as God loves? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who fills our hearts with the fire of God's love?	God of love, you guide us in the way to love, so we pray: Guide our nation in the way to love the people of other nations as we love ourselves in Jesus' name, we pray. Guide our church in the way to respect the faith of others as we respect our own, in Jesus' name we pray. Guide our families in the way to care of the needs of other as we care for our own, in Jesus' name, we pray.	Hear, O God, you are our strength and our rock. May the bread and cup we share strengthen us with your love and compassion. May the Holy Spirit guide us to walk with our neighbors, friends and family in mercy and love. We ask all this in Jesus' name. Amen.
32 nd Sunday in Ordinary Time	With trust in God, we say: Do you believe in one God, who always provides for us? Do you believe in Jesus, who gave his entire life for us so that we might live? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, who enables us to give generously of ourselves as Jesus did?	Generous God, you know what we need, and so we offer our prayers to you. For our country, may we generously share what we have with others, in Jesus' name we pray. For our church, may we live in a spirit of trust in God, in Jesus' name we pray. For our families, may we be generous with each other and those who come to our homes, in Jesus' name we pray.	God, we place our trust in you. When we share Jesus' body and blood, we, too, are fed and our cup of joy will never be empty. Send your Holy Spirit to guide us in the ways of your goodness. We ask this in Jesus' name, forever and ever. Amen.
